About the Coaches

Coach Jack Leggett: Head Coach Clemson University

No stranger to success, in 14 seasons he has led his Clemson Team to 649 victories, 14 NCAA Tournaments, and 5 College World Series berths. Clemson is the fourth winningest program in college baseball during his time as head coach. His aggressiveness and passion for the game reflects to his team and has won him several Coach of the Year Awards. Also coached winning seasons at Vermont and Western Carolina.

Paul Mainieri: Head Coach LSU

Having a 25 year head coaching record of 893-518-5, Coach Mainieri plans to finish his coaching career in the same place it began 31 years ago, LSU. Following in his fathers footsteps, the legendary Hall of Fame Coach Demie Mainieri, he is ranked 22nd among active Division I coaches. Mainieri led Notre Dame to 533 wins and 9 NCAA Tournament appearances in 12 seasons.

Javi Sanchez: Assistant Coach LSU

After playing four seasons as catcher at Notre Dame, he played his final two seasons as starting catcher; he then was the Minnesota Twins 14th-round draft choice. He played four seasons on minor league baseball, retiring from playing to coaching at LSU. Sanchez is responsible for the defensive play of outfielders and the base running; helps other coaches with the hitters, infielders, and catchers.

Chris Rose: Head Coach Meridian Community College

Joining a long line of successful coaches at MCC, Rose established himself as on the finest recruiters in the southeast before taking over the head coach position. He has maintained the high standards here at MCC; as the Eagles won the MACJC State Championship. Coach Rose was honored as the MS Association of Coaches Junior/Community 2006 College Baseball Coach of the Year.

Jerry Boatner: Head Coach West Lauderdale High School

Inducted into 5 Hall of Fames; Boatner will begin his 40th year as head baseball coach. 35 years at West Lauderdale High School leading the Knights to a record of 993-279, 23 invitational championships, 13 conference champs, 27 district champs, 3 state runner up titles, 11 state champion titles. Coach is 2nd in the state in wins and 4th in the Nation, numerous coach of the year titles, including 2007 National Coach of the Year by the USA Today.

Jeff Schexnaider: Head Coach University of LA Monroe

2006 Schexnaider was named head coach of ULM, back to his alma mater. Although his high school coaching career was quite a success at West Monroe, Quachita Parish and Catholic HS in Baton Rouge. He has been named the top coach in the 2-5A district 10 times, Coach of the Year 4 times on the state level.

Mike Trahan: Assistant Coach University of LA Monroe

Trahan entered the coaching ranks following a stand-out career as an infielder. Coaching at the high school and collegiate level; at LaGrange HS, McNeese State, before landing at ULM. His recruiting classes have been nationally recognized by Baseball America and helped McNeese State claim the 2006 Southland Conference championship.

We will have CEU credits available by EMCED.

From the Director

I am pleased to be hosting the 5th Mid-South Baseball Coaches Clinic. We will have the finest speakers in the baseball industry, at the finest accommodations in the south. I would like to thank our main sponsor Easton Sports, Inc. We will have several other sponsors at the clinic to display and demonstrate their product for you. I look forward to seeing you at the clinic. If you have any questions, please give me or my staff a call.
